

WHO'LL PAY THE WA NATIONALS' $3 BILLION MINING TAX?

Everyone knows when costs go up, mining companies have to cut costs to stay competitive. That means cutting jobs and spending. And when mining jobs are cut, other jobs are lost too. So why are The Nationals hell bent on making that happen? They can't just snatch $3 billion from Western Australia's biggest employers without it affecting thousands of workers.

VOTE FOR JOBS NOT TAXES.

KEEP MINING STRONG IN WA. Go to keepwaminingstrong.com

WHO'LL PAY BRENDON GRYLLS' $3 BILLION MINING TAX?

Everyone knows when costs go up, mining companies have to cut costs to stay competitive. That means cutting jobs and spending. And when mining jobs are cut, other jobs are lost too. So why is Brendon Grylls hell bent on making that happen? He can't just snatch $3 billion from the Pilbara's biggest employers without it affecting thousands of workers.

VOTE FOR JOBS NOT TAXES.

KEEP MINING STRONG IN WA. Go to keepwaminingstrong.com

 CME
THE CHAMBER OF MINERALS AND ENERGY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA